

Reform Treaty summary

The 294 page Reform Treaty, now renamed the Treaty of Lisbon, gives the EU the powers of the 465 page EU Constitution by amending and adding the missing clauses to the existing five treaties. So it, like them, is unreadable; you need to read all six treaties together, thousands of pages which includes Maastricht, and see through its concealment and deception to get the full picture. There will be no more treaties: these six complete the EU and equal the constitution (which was going to repeal and replace the five treaties with a single document).

Article 1-3, new article 1a: Unlike Britain, the EU nation and its laws are not based on Christianity.

1-4 New article 2. It is the EU's values that count, not the wishes of the people. The state comes first, soviet style.

1a and Article 2.1-6 and the whole treaty make it very clear our new nation will be the European Union, not Britain.

2-2 and 2.3 Our former borders will mean nothing.

2-4 Gives the EU the power to force Britain into the Euro.

3a Puts the EU's former nations into the same position Soviet satellite states enjoyed.

3a-3 Compels former nations to obey the EU. They shall carry out the EU's tasks, and may not oppose it.

3b-1 Conferral - the EU will not exceed the powers it has taken in the Treaties. Negated by 3b.3:

3b-3 If local powers can better be used by the EU, the EU will use them.

3b-4. Proportionality: The EU will not use more force than necessary to compel us to comply with the Treaties.

Article 6 The EU recognises its own Charter of the EU's Rights of 2007.

6-2 The EU accedes to the EU Convention on Human Rights, but not where it affects the EU's power.

6-3.c Paves the way for The European Council to become independent of Heads of State, and become a politburo.

Article 8. Equality. In glorious Soviet style. And we are forced to accept EU citizenship.

Article 8A-1 to 4 Prepares the way for the abolition of Westminster:

8A-2 Heads of state can be bypassed in favour of "government;" National Parliaments bypassed direct to citizens.

8A-3. Decisions to be taken as close as possible to the citizen. Eurospeak for Regions, not Parliaments.

8A-4. Will be used to abolish our Conservative, Labour and Lib Dem-Parties. Its the old EU constitution I-46-4 word for word: Political parties to be at the European level. The Madrid conference defined this in 1999 as parties with voters in 10 or more former nations. Our parties count voters in just one nation. Goodbye to the LibLabCon.

8B-3. The Commission may use consultation. Ballots, elections, referendums or democracy are not to be its way.

8B-4 One million citizens may petition the Commission to implement the glorious EU Treaties. We can only agree, Soviet style. Old EU constitution clause I-47-4.

9 and 9A Implement EU constitution clauses I-19 to I-27 List of Institutions. Confirms their interest in the Regions.

There are three governing bodies, each with up to 27 members:

9B The European Council is made up of heads of state, or "government" which could be any politician of their choosing. It meets 4 times a year, and chooses (and can fire) its President for 2.5 years, two terms maximum. He can be anyone from anywhere but not a head of state; he can fire a Commissioner.

9C The Council of Ministers, now The Council, is senior bureaucrat level; controls laws, the budget and policy.

9D The third level is the Commissioners, 20 people, anyone, from each country, provided (clause 3) he is not anti-EU. The Commission is the executive, the government or bureaucracy.

These three are politburos where EU politicians choose politicians; there are no elections to positions of power.

Unlike Westminster, the EU Parliament in Brussels, the only elected body, has no executive power; it is a sham.

9E An EU foreign minister shall be appointed, and will be a Vice President of the Commission.

9F The EU courts shall enforce the six EU Treaties and former nations shall comply.

Article 10 Enhanced Cooperation: Former nations may wish to reinforce the EU's integration using any powers remaining outside the EU's absolute power. If they don't, the Council can enforce enhanced cooperation if former nations won't cooperate. Clause 3: Only cooperating nations may vote in the council.

10-4 We must obey the acquis communautaire, 170,000 pages of active EU law. (EU regulations millions of pages)

That is the first 26 pages of the 294. The Reform Treaty will create a Soviet politburo style dictatorship. EU politicians will select our rulers without elections. The EU Parliament in Brussels, the only elected body, is a sham with no executive power. There are no provisions for elections to Westminster, which will close. The EU's 111,000 regulations will control our lives more closely than were Soviet citizens. Harmonising our laws with the EU over 35 years has given us the laws of a police state, which the EU will enforce. On the 1st January 2009 the EU will become our nation, and Britain be abolished as a nation. The Treaty is worse than the Constitution.
